

Work over 50

career transition
coaching program

This coaching is for anyone 50+ who needs to design a second career or find work 50+ We are in a changing world of work that allows us many options both locally and globally.

There is no more security in the world of work and if we want to continue to earn we need to ensure that we understand the 21st century world of work.

It is key to understand where the gaps are and how to engage to find meaningful Paid or Volunteer work in your next season.

This program includes the following:

- An EBook called “Finding Passion, Purpose and a Pay Cheque 50+: by Lynda Smith”
- Three- 45 minute Skype coaching sessions to discuss your plan

You will receive the EBook by email.

You book the 3 sessions to suit yourself over the next 6 months.

After the coaching sessions:

- You will have a framework plan of your skills and possible opportunities
- Be given a number of places where you can engage, network or find work opportunities
- Be given a list of books and resources to read to build your plan
- Have some online skills to guide your plan
