Dear Refirement Members

I am not a great lover of winter. The mornings and nights are cold, but the days are glorious. The seasons change faster than our lives do, but we should still be thinking through these changes and planning ahead.

There are so many changes to think through within 5 years of retirement. Where to stay, how to continue earning, what to do with your investments, plans to travel and many more.

The greatest one is to do with our identity. Many are not aware of how much their identity is attached to their work. It is key to unlock this piece as part of this process.

This month we share some ideas on work and mentoring. Take the time to read and share with others.

Warm greetings
